

NOTIFICATION REGARDING THE EVENTS OF THE CHAMBER OF ADVOCATES AS WELL AS TO THE MEMORY OF THE 100th ANNIVERSARY OF THE VICTIMS OF ARMENIAN GENOCIDE

22.04.2015 15:13

On 24-25th April the Chamber of Advocates of the RA plans a range of events dedicated to the memory of the 100th anniversary of the victims of Armenian Genocide. The representatives of other Bar associations particularly representatives from France, Russia, Greece, Bulgaria , as well as famous advocates who had activities regarding Genocide in their countries particularly the Chairman of Bar association of Paris Pierre-Olivier Sur , French-Armenian advocate, benefactor, honorable member-advocate of the Chamber of Advocates o f RA Raymond Ezegelyan, The honorable Chairman of International Bar Association (EUA) Paul Nemo, the Chairman of Bar Association of Sofia Peter Kitanov etc.. Foreign and RA advocates will participate in legal-historical discussions on "Consequences of Armenian Genocide after 100 years", "Basics and mechanisms of international legal responsibility of Armenian Genocide, present their works carried out in that direction in their countries. The guests of the Chamber of Advocates of RA will discuss the issues, questions regarding their profession advocacy, such as topics on the themes ' "Challenges in regard to the practice of advocacy" and "Rules on the ethics of advocacy in the Republic of Armenia and other states, comparative survey". The solemn event of handing the licenses of the graduates of the School of Advocates of RA , as well as the general meeting of the Chamber of Advocates on deciding "The Advocates' Day " will be held in 25, April.

BACK $(window).load(function(){ if(typeof $(".fb_comments_count").html() != "undefined" && parseInt($(".fb_comments_count").html()) != 0){ updateCommentsCount(window.location.href); } })